We share this bread and cup...

...and we proclaim our willingness to build a community of love, and to be the holy people God calls us to be.

WELCOME TO QUEEN OF APOSTLES COMMUNITY (QAC)!

From a Marianist Community of student brothers open to visitors for Sunday Eucharist, Queen of Apostles Community emerged as a non-territorial parish on August 28, 1973. Continuing in the tradition of the Marianist Charism, we come together each week as a family of Catholic, Christian believers, to worship our God in the Eucharist with song and praise and to share in the breaking of the Bread. In so doing, we proclaim our willingness to build a community of love and to be the holy people God calls us to be.

If you are visiting and worshipping with us for the first time, we extend to you our warmest welcome. Our prayer is that your worship experience will be uplifting and Spirit filled. We hope you will visit us often and worship with us! Our Sunday Homilies, the "QAC Spirit" newsletter and live streams of our Sunday liturgies are available on our website: www.qac-ohio.org.

If you would like more information about QAC or are interested in joining our Community, please fill out the form below and drop it in the collection box. You may also email your name, phone number, and address to qacohio@sbcglobal.net and we will contact you.

Marianist Doxology

May the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit be glorified in all places through the Immaculate Virgin Mary.

Stewardship and Giving: "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted." - Matthew 23:12. The world celebrates people in the spotlight and those who have the most of everything. We think celebrity, money and possessions are the key to happiness. Yet, our world is filled with more loneliness, anxiety, and depression than ever before. The key to a happy life is relationship. Relationship with God and each other. Trust is the foundation of any good relationship and humility is the seed of trust.

QUEEN OF APOSTLES EXTENDS A WARM WELCOME TO ALL WHO ARE VISITING WITH US TODAY!

If you are interested in learning more about QAC or wish to join our Community, please fill out this form, place it in the collection box and we will contact you.

Malachi 1:14b-2:2b, 8-10: Malachi's complaint (placed on God's lips) is that the priests have neglected their duty to preach the Torah (the law) with fidelity and good example. Thus they have voided the covenant with Levi, the priestly tribe of Israel, and are responsible for the erosion of faith among the people.

1 Thessalonians 2:7b-9, 13: Paul's combination of self-sufficiency and sincere regard for the spiritual welfare of his flock makes us see him as the ideal apostle, preaching and teaching in the most effective way imaginable. He has personal integrity and credibility because what he has received as a gift, he gives us as a gift. The effect is that the people of Thessalonica accept the gospel as the word of God, not as the message of a human being.

Matthew 23:1-12: Jesus is speaking of bad leaders and bad leadership. There is no justification here whatsoever for presuming that all the scribes and Pharisees of Jesus' time were hypocritical. In fact, the vast majority of the religious leaders were good and faithful servants of God's law and God's people. All things considered, this reading nevertheless gives us an extremely powerful and useful message about religious leadership, relevant for all time.

COMMUNITY PRAYER FOR GUIDANCE

Companioning God, we call upon the Spirit to move through us with power and grace as we work to transition our beloved community to something new, and vital, that will inspire others to join us.

Open our hearts and minds to Your call to create with courage the community that You desire – trusting in Christ our Light who goes beside us, behind and before us, always calling us forward and attending our way.

We pray this through Jesus our Brother and Teacher, and the loving heart of Mary. Amen

QAC BOOK OF LIFE: Beginning today, we are presenting the QAC Book of Life at Liturgy and placing it upon the table in front of the Ambo. This beautiful book is a compilation of scrapbook pages designed by QACers in memory of their loved ones who have gone to their great reward. We will have the book on display before and after liturgy today through November 19th. Blank pages will also be available (with instructions) for you to take home and design your own page for those who you've lost. Any questions please email Steve Guilfoos at sguilfoos@woh.rr.com.

ST VINCENT SHELTERS: Today is our monthly collection of fresh produce for St. Vincent. In addition, there is a great need for #10 cans of fruit and vegetables (same variety if more than one can) and items for sack lunches (peanut butter and jelly, chips, fruit cups, etc.), though all shelf stable food is appreciated. This is also a great time to go through your closets and pull out usable clothing that no longer fits since last fall/winter. Other items appreciated at this time are lotion, wipes, body wash, shampoo, deodorants, and socks. Shoes, hygiene items, and bedding/towels are also needed. See the Needs List to donate directly at <https://stvincentdayton.org/donate-goods/needs-list>. "...share your bread with the hungry, shelter the oppressed and homeless, clothe the naked...do not turn your back..."

CHANGE AND BE CHANGED COLLECTION: Every year QAC has had collections to support the life-saving work of Change And Be Changed (CABC) in Malawi, particularly in connection with our QAC Day picnics. This year, our last as Queen of Apostles Community, we chose to have no collections associated with our memorable 50th celebration.

However, as you could glean from the Hangartners' CABC update in the November Spirit, the needs still remain. The building phase is nearing completion, but significant work is still needed to repair equipment and facilities. Moreover, CABC has made commitments to the education of numerous students who will eventually provide medical services. Therefore, we have our collection for Change And Be Changed on November 19, the Sunday before Thanksgiving.

Contributions may be placed in the special collection box on the table in the vestibule and for those who cannot attend our important Community Meeting on the 19th at Donut & Bagel Sunday. Checks should be made out to Change And Be Changed. Donations are tax deductible. As you prayerfully consider your donation, please be generous to those less fortunate as you count your own blessings for Thanksgiving!

FIRST EUCHARIST STUDENTS: Please continue your prayers for Joseph Hibbard, Luke Naveau and Ben Seibert as they begin their preparation for First Eucharist, which will be celebrated during our December 23rd Mass (4:00pm). Please keep them, their parents and siblings in your thoughts and prayers during this time of preparation.

DIVORCE CARE - SURVIVING THE HOLIDAYS: Help for the divorced and separated during the holidays. Sunday, Nov. 12; 1:00-3:00 PM @ St. Francis of Assisi Campus, 6245 Wilmington Pike, Centerville, OH. For more information, call Marcelle Toma (937) 312-1157 (Not a texting number) or mtoma@woh.rr.com.

QUOTE OF THE DAY: “If only there could be an invention...that bottled up a memory, like scent. And it never faded, and it never got stale. And then, when one wanted it, the bottle could be uncorked, and it would be like living in the moment all over again.”
~ Daphne Du Maurier

A LITTLE SUNDAY SCHOOL HUMOR: In Denver, the members of a Sunday--school class were asked to set down their favorite biblical truths. One youngster laboriously printed: “Do one to others as others do one to you.”

NEW SEASON UPDATE

Leadership Team and New Season Committee Meeting - Monday, Nov 6th.

These two groups will meet Monday, November 6 in Si Lounge at 7:00 p.m. All are welcome to attend as we finalize decisions regarding our new gathering time and discuss interim leadership needs.

Reminder: During the October community meeting, the recommendation was made for our community to gather on the 1st and 3rd Sundays at 3:00pm, beginning in January. (Full details are available here: <https://bit.ly/QacOctRec>)

Questions & Answers

Are the recommendations for gathering time and social justice activities presented last weekend final? Has the decision formally been made?

No. Like each step of this New Season process, community feedback has been gathered, the task forces have prayerfully created recommendations, and now we're soliciting additional input. On Monday, November 6, the Leadership Team and the New Seasons Committee will meet to make a decision about scheduling the Madeleine Room for the first part of 2024 for our community. You are welcome to join that evening! Feedback about the recommendation can be shared with qacnewseason@gmail.com or any member of the New Seasons Committee or Leadership Team.

And, we'll collectively evaluate our meeting time next year to learn if it's working and make changes if needed. Like so much of our New Season work, we'll start and learn as we go!

If we are passionately pursuing social justice in our new community, will we lose the focus on our community? Will we just be focused on serving others?

No. In the new mission statement of the community, we state: "We are a community of disciples deeply rooted in love. We continuously work to be the holy people God calls us to be in our church and our world, embracing a "Martha and Mary" rhythm of spiritual growth and service."

The time that we gather together will be our spiritual nourishment to then be sent out into the world to serve. Gathering, learning, and loving as a community will still very much be part of our collective identity.

I have feedback about the new season. Whom should I tell?

Please email qacnewseason@gmail.com to reach the entire New Season Committee, or share with one of us, if you prefer.

The New Season Committee includes Meghann and Matt Naveau, Tom Zawodny, Kelly Bohrer, Linda and Kevin Skinner, and Marilyn and Tom McCrate.

AFFIRMATION CREED

Please respond: “We Believe”

Do you believe in God, Whom we do not see,
Whom we call Creator of all that is,
Whom the prophets saw as one who nurtures us? /:R

Do you believe in this God whom we do not see whose Son became one of us by the Virgin Mary and was named Jesus. Who taught us by word and example the way of being neighbor, who suffered,
died and rose that we might have eternal life? /:R

Do you believe in the Spirit whom we cannot see because of the Scriptures the Spirit inspired, because of people who live by that message and because we can hear the voice of the Spirit in our silence? /:R

Do you believe that baptism makes us daughters and sons of God – brothers and sisters of each other?
And do you believe in the Church we do see, with its saints and sinners, because it has given us God’s Word and gathers us in the breaking of the bread and in the forgiveness of sins? /:R

Do you believe that Jesus, Who rose from the dead, is faithful to His promises, and one day we will rise from the dead unto life everlasting? /:R

This is our faith.
We profess it in the name of Jesus. Amen.
